Visa Process

Interns/Interns participate in this program with the J-1 visa and regulations of USIA. Necessary assistance to obtain the J-1 (applying and obtaining the DS-2019 Form) will be provided by our US Partner. To validate the J-1 visa, each applicant must apply to the U.S. Consulate/Embassy individually. The ultimate decision to validate J-1 visa belongs to the U.S. Consulate/Embassy.

Housing

Usually the host company provides housing options at the intern's expense. If the host company does not provide assistance for housing, Premier Immigration Services will provide the necessary assistance in finding temporary or permanent housing at the intern's expense.

Professional Development (Training)

Interns/interns usually receive professional training seminars conducted by their host companies. The interns are provided with a certificate at the end of the seminars, depending on the regular attendance and success.

Orientation

Prior to leaving for the USA, each participant is obligated to attend a mandatory orientation seminar provided by our consultants. Several subjects are covered during the orientation, but the main topics are:

- * General information about the U.S., such as living conditions, life styles, cultural similarities & differences.
- * General information about the host company and region or city
- * Performance and behavior expectations of the host company
