Keli [REDACTED]

This is to inform you that Employment and Social Development Canada (ESDC)/Service Canada (SC) has completed the processing of your Labour Market Impact Assessment (LMIA) application received on November 15, 2021 for 1 Food Service Supervisor(s) at 240 - 1st Avenue West, Prince Rupert, British Columbia, V8J 1A8.

It has been determined that hiring foreign nationals in the specified occupation and at the specified work location is likely to have a positive or neutral impact on the Canadian labour market. This positive LMIA expires on October 24, 2022; prior to this date, the foreign national(s) must submit their work permit or permanent residency application(s) to Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC). If you have not already provided the name(s) of the foreign national(s), please submit their name(s) by completing the Temporary Foreign Worker Information form located at:

<https://catalogue.servicecanada.gc.ca/content/EForms/en/Detail.html?Form=ESDC-EMP5661>.

This positive LMIA is issued with reference to your stated commitment to support both a work permit application and a permanent residence application (this means the employer will hire the foreign national as a temporary foreign worker before or while the permanent residence application is being processed). This positive LMIA is also based on the information and supporting documentation you provided in your application, and it is subject to your compliance with legal requirements related to the employment of the foreign worker. Employers are responsible for:

- ensuring they comply with all of the conditions and requirements of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (IRPA), the Immigration and Refugee Protection Regulations (IRPR), and the Temporary Foreign Worker (TFW) Program, as outlined in documents such as the LMIA application, the LMIA decision letter and annexes;
- keeping all records associated to their LMIA application and any other documents that demonstrate their compliance with the program conditions that are set out in the LMIA decision letter and annexes for a period of six years; and
- informing ESDC/SC of any changes or errors relating to an approved LMIA or the temporary foreign worker.

To view the Program Requirements you agreed to comply with as part of your application submission, please visit: <https://www.canada.ca/en/employment-social-development/services/foreign-workers.html>

This LMIA may be revoked or suspended if:

- a. new information becomes known after the time the LMIA is issued that, if known before, would have led to a different result or indicate that the employment of the foreign worker under the work permit is having, or will have, a significant negative effect on the labour market in Canada;
- b. you, your third-party, or the group of employers of which you are part of provided false, misleading or inaccurate information in the context of the request for the LMIA;
- c. your name has been added to the list referred to in subsection 209.91(3) of the IRPR (<http://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/regulations/sor-2002-227>);
- d. there are reasonable grounds to suspect that you are not complying with the conditions set out in IRPR.

If you decide to cancel your offer of employment or that you no longer need to hire a foreign national before their entry to Canada, you must immediately contact the affected foreign national(s) and notify Service Canada by contacting the Employer Contact Center at 1-800-367-5693. Failure to do so could impact the outcome of future LMIA applications.

WORK PERMIT OR PERMANENT RESIDENCY APPLICATION

Employers must provide copies of this LMIA Letter and the annexed Employment Details page to the foreign nationals in order for them to apply for a work permit or permanent residency. To obtain more information, please visit Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) at www.cic.gc.ca.

FOREIGN WORKER RIGHTS

To obtain information on the rights of people temporarily working in Canada, see 'Understand Your Rights – Foreign Workers' at <http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/work/tfw-rights.asp>.

REPORTING ABUSE OR MISUSE

To report abuse or misuse of the Temporary Foreign Worker Program, see the 'Online Fraud Reporting Tool' at www.servicecanada.gc.ca or call the Service Canada Confidential Tip Line at 1-866-602-9448. Callers can choose to remain anonymous.

If you have a Job Bank for Employers account, we invite you to submit your next LMIA application electronically. For more information please visit:

Social Insurance Number

Information for Temporary Foreign Workers

Please share the following information on how to apply for Social Insurance Number with your Temporary Foreign Workers

Service Canada provides individuals with a single point of access to a wide range of government of Canada programs, services and benefits.

What is a Social Insurance Number?

The Social Insurance Number (SIN) is a nine-digit number that is required to work in Canada. It is your responsibility, as a temporary foreign worker, to apply for your SIN.

What do I need to apply?

To apply for a SIN, you must provide a minimum of three documents:

1. An original valid primary identity document that proves your identity and your legal status in Canada

As a temporary foreign worker, you will need to provide your work permit issued by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC), indicating under which conditions you are authorized to work in Canada.

2. An original valid secondary document to confirm your identity, such as a passport or provincial or territorial identification

Foreign Passport

Driver's License

Health Card

3. A proof of address with your name and address where the address matches the one indicated in your SIN application. While applying in Canada the address provided must be a Canadian address.

The image shows a sample utility bill from Bell Canada. It includes fields for 'Previous bill', 'Current bill', and 'Service address'. The service address is listed as '1234 Main Street, City, Province, X1X 1X1'. The bill also shows the name of the customer and the date of the bill.

Bill or contract from a cell phone or other service provider

The image shows a sample employment contract form. It includes sections for 'The Employer' and 'The Employee', each with fields for Last Name, First Name, Home Address, Phone Number, Fax Number, and Email Address. There is also a section for 'The PARTIES agree as follows:' with a 'Duration of Contract' field. The form is signed by the Employer and the Employee, and includes a section for 'Organization ABC' with a 'Name of Representative of Organization ABC' field. The form is dated and signed by the Applicant.

Employment contract with your name and address

The image shows a sample letter from an organization. It is dated and signed by a representative of the organization. The letter confirms that the applicant, John Doe, lives at 456 Main Street, City, Province, X1X 1X1. The letter is intended to be used as proof of address for the applicant's Social Insurance Number (SIN) application.

Note: Complete your full name on the application form as it appears on your primary identity document. A supporting document may be required if the name on your primary identity document is different from the name on your secondary document or SIN application form.

For more information about the documents required to apply for a SIN, visit Canada.ca -> Jobs -> Apply for a Social Insurance Number (SIN) -> What you need before you apply.

How do I apply?

- Applying online is easy. Submit a SIN application online within a secure and protected environment using the eSIN portal at sin-nas.canada.ca/en/Sin/ and upload digital copies of your documents.

Please consult the Social Insurance Number – What you need before you start - Canada.ca page to ensure you have all the required documents ready before you apply.

Use your smartphone camera and scan this QR code to be immediately directed to the online SIN application.

- You can also apply for your SIN by mail. If you choose this option, you must provide a completed and signed SIN application form in addition to your original documents.

Your original documents will be sent back once your application is processed.

- If you are unable to apply online or by mail, you have the option to apply in person and bring all original documents required with you.

If you chose to apply in person, we strongly recommend that you book an appointment prior to your visit by using the online service request form.

Next steps?

Once you have applied you will receive your confirmation of SIN within 20 business days.

If you have not receive your SIN within that timeframe, please contact the Social Insurance Number program at 1-866-274-6627.
